The estate's 2005 Valpolicella Superiore Campo Prognai is an intense yet soft-textured wine with gorgeous aromatics, super-ripe dark fruit and plenty of toasted oak. A more refined approach might put this wine in the company of the region's top bottlings. The raw materials certainly seem to be present. Anticipated maturity: 2008-2010.

These are the first wines I have tasted from Latium Morini, in Veneto.
